- 2.3 Contact information such as name, organisation, position, address, telephone, and email are collected for marketing, support services, mandatory reporting and for communicating with stakeholders as part of our day to day operation.
- 2.4 Names, addresses, phone numbers, emergency contact details, bank account details and other employment related information is collected from staff for the purpose of managing human resources. The management of staff personal information complies with this policy.

3.0 Disclosure of personal information

- 3.1 TABT does not disclose personal information other than for the purpose for which it was collected, or an individual has consented to a secondary purpose, or an individual would reasonably expect this (such as receiving communications about upcoming events), or if required by law.
- 3.2 TABT may share personal information with the Commonwealth government in accordance with Commonwealth contractual obligations. In these circumstances TABT will take reasonable steps to inform and seek consent from the individuals concerned and take all reasonable steps to ensure that the recipient handles the personal information according to the APPs.
- 3.3 TABT does not sell its mailing lists to third-parties for marketing purposes.
- 3.4 TABT does not disclose personal information to overseas recipients. While people around the world can access material published on our website, no statistical or research publications contain identifiable personal information.

4.0 Right to access and correct records

- 4.1 Individuals may, subject to the exceptions prescribed by the Australian Privacy Principles, request access to and correction of their personal information where this is collected directly from individuals by TABT.
- 4.2 TABT does not charge for giving access to or for correcting personal information. Requests for access to or correction of personal information should be made in accordance with the student access to records policy.

5.0 Security of personal information

- 5.1 TABT will take all reasonable steps to ensure that any personal information collected is relevant to the purpose for which it was collected, is accurate, up to date and complete.
- 5.2 TABT routinely updates the information held in its customer relationship management system. This includes confirming with students who are returning for a new enrolment if their personal contact details have changed.
